

Spring semester 2024

- Do not forget to register on the course beforehand. Contact hist@hist.lu if you do not succeed.
- The introduction is mandatory, contact the department if you cannot attend the first meeting: hist@hist.lu.se

This is a copy of the welcoming letter sent to all admitted students

You have been admitted to a history course at Lund University. You are most welcome!

You must register on the course to keep your place. You can register via the Student portal. Both the registration and the first meeting are mandatory; please inform the department if you are unable to register yourself or attend the first lecture. Otherwise, your admission cannot be guaranteed. To inform the department: state your name, date of birth and the course name to the administrator's office, e-mail: hist@hist.lu.se.

For web registration and introduction meetings, see Introduction meetings spring 2024: <https://www.hist.lu.se/en/education/interested-in-studying-history/application-and-admission/introduction-meetings-spring-2024/>

You can always find the syllabus, schedule, literature list and a link to the web-based learning portal Canvas on the course website:

<https://www.hist.lu.se/en/education/courses-by-semester/historia/VT2024/>

If you do not plan to attend your course, please decline it at www.antagning.se or by contacting the department directly by e-mailing: hist@hist.lu.se, making it available for applicants on the waiting list. If you already have made a registration but want to decline, contact the department.

Instructions on how to activate your student account, how to register online, how to find your way to LUX and more information about your studies can be found on the Joint Faculties of Humanities and Theology's website for newly admitted students:

<https://www.ht.lu.se/en/education/admission/>

More information about the start of the semester and your studies in history on the Department of History's website: <https://www.hist.lu.se/en/education/student-information/>

More information about the course will be given to you by your teacher.

We hope you will enjoy studying at our department!
